Urban League to Honor Mutual of Omaha, Collective for Youth and Stage Stores

This year's Urban League of Nebraska Equal Opportunity Awards will be honoring Mutual of Omaha, Collective for Youth, and Stage Stores for their contributions to diversity and inclusion practices in the workplace and in the community. The luncheon is December 7 at the Hilton Omaha at 11:30 am.

Eartha Jean Johnson will be our Keynote Speaker. She has worked at Exxon and United States Department of Justice as an attorney before becoming the CEO of Risk Mitigation Worldwide. Eartha uses the knowledge she acquired practicing law to help executives avoid mistakes that result in huge jury awards.

Urban League of Nebraska's Annual Meeting December 4, 2018 5:30 pm Venue at the Highlander

Urban League of Nebraska's Board of Directors and executive staff review the year's notable accomplishments, the organization's financial position, and the program initiatives for the 2019 fiscal year. The work of the ULN Guild and ULN Young Professionals are also presented.

Whitney M. Young

Academy Student Receives Runza Scholarship

Ms. DaNya Horne, North High student and a three-year participant of the Urban League of Nebraska Whitney Young Jr. Academy, received an award at North High School! Out of 300 applicants, she was one of 30 students selected to receive a $500 scholarship from Runza. As a part of the award, she had to submit a 500 word essay. She was interviewed by KETV-Channel 7 and had a chance to be filmed while in her Honors Personal Finance course.

The Whitney M. Young Academy is a year-round college preparatory program providing skills for graduation from high school, enrollment in post-secondary education, and attaining and retaining employment.

It is these kinds of honors that helps solidify what we do at Urban League with our participating students!
